CORAM : HONOURABLE MR.JUSTICE K.A.PUJ

Date : 22/12/2005

ORAL JUDGMENT

1.The petitioner, namely, National Textile Corporation having one of its Units viz. Rajkot Textile Mills, Rajkot has filed this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying for quashing and setting aside the award passed by the Industrial Court, Rajkot in Misc. Application No. (IC) 1 of 1986 on 30.04.1987.

2.The petition was admitted and rule was issued on 27.07.1987. While issuing rule, this Court has passed an order granting interim relief only in respect of payments of the past interim relief at the rate of Rs. 70/-. As far as the future payment is concerned, the petitioner was directed to pay as and from July, the amount payable for the month of July will be paid on or before 10.08.1987 and the subsequent payment of interim relief will be made on 10th of every succeeding month thereafter.

3.Ms. Vidhi Shodhan, learned advocate appearing for Nanavati & Nanavati for the petitioner, on instruction from Mr. K.H. Rangrej, Factory Manager has submitted that the award passed by the Industrial Court has been fully complied with and all payments have been made to the workmen. In this view of the matter, the petition may be disposed of as having become infructuous.

4.In the above view of the matter, this petition is accordingly disposed of as having become infructuous. Rule discharged without any order as to costs.
